Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 2, 2020

Jesus said the blessing, broke the loaves,
and gave them to the disciples,
who in turn gave them to the crowds.
They all ate and were satisfied.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today remind us of our hunger and thirst, and how God works within us. We human beings are created dependent on food and water, and much more. And God deeply desires that our needs be met. Our physical hunger and thirst point to our deeper hungers: our need for meaning, purpose, and belonging; and most of all, for unity with God. In Matthew's Gospel passage today, Jesus' heart is moved with compassion for the people. Jesus not only cures the sick and feeds the multitude, he also establishes bonds of community through the shared meal. Saint Paul shows us that nothing can ultimately separate us from God. Isaiah reminds us of God's ongoing invitation to us to come and receive. God's gifts cannot be earned or purchased. God's grace is offered in abundance. God's nourishment is the very best possible, and we should accept no substitutes.

NOTHING CAN SEPARATE US

Today's passage from Saint Paul's letter to the Romans concludes Chapter 8 with a flourish. It is the exclamation point of Paul's teaching on the presence of the Spirit within them and among them. The church in Rome faced great suffering as they were marginalized and persecuted for their faith. Paul names both social and cosmic forces that oppress them, over which they have no control. Their trials likely provoked questions that led them to wonder, "Where is God?"

Paul teaches that God is so deeply present within us that nothing can separate us from God. This includes our own forms of resistance. Even when we find myriad ways to avoid and run away, God is waiting patiently. Even when God seems distant or absent, God continues to invite, to welcome, and to speak to us.

IMAGINING GOD'S ABUNDANCE

When reflecting upon today's Gospel passage from Matthew, the story of the feeding of the multitude, we might consider the role of Jesus' disciples. Unlike the very similar story in Matthew 15, Jesus responds to the disciples by saying, "Give them some food yourselves". Jesus is pushing his disciples to think beyond the apparent scarcity, and to open their imaginations to God's abundance. They are to join in with what God is doing. Jesus then takes, blesses, breaks, and shares the bread (anticipating his action at the Last Supper), and the disciples share the loaves with the crowd.

The stories of the feeding of the multitudes also point ahead to the practice of Eucharist in the Church. The Eucharist itself points ahead to God's banquet at the consummation of the reign of God, when all will share God's abundance. We the Church are called to open our imaginations to God present and active, who continually works toward God's promised future. We are to share in God's passionate desire to feed the people, and join in what God is doing here and now.

Annual Mission Coop Appeal
Weekend of August 8-9, 2020

Each year, the Diocese of San Jose generously invites missionary groups to speak at all its parishes through the Missionary Cooperative Appeal. Missionary groups share their stories and solicit financial support through a second collection. This year, the personal visits from missionaries are not possible due to the coronavirus pandemic and the many restrictions which stem from it. However, on the weekend of August 8 and 9, our parish will hear from the Lay Mission-Helpers Association (LMH) via video. Since its foundation in Los Angeles in 1955, LMH has sent over 750 men, women, and families on mission to over 36 countries. These dedicated Catholics, recruited from across the United States, have served as missionary teachers, nurses, computer technicians, project managers, accountants, pastoral workers, and other professionals. Currently, LMH share their gifts in Ghana, Uganda, and Papua New Guinea in the areas of education, administration, and project management. We will hear from Mr. Damian Kabot who served as a missionary in Bolivia and Mexico and now is the Development Director for Lay Mission-Helpers.

For more information about LMH, visit www.laymissionhelpers.org

Thank you for your generosity in supporting the missionary work of Lay Mission-Helpers!

WE APPRECIATE YOUR SUPPORT!

Thank you for your continued support during this tough period for many. You can continue to contribute to the parish in several ways:

- 1) By using the on-line donation link on our parish website, as 88 of you are already doing.
<https://giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/athanasius>
- 2) By dropping off your check or your cash donation to the parish office anytime via the mail slot in the front door of the Rectory or mailing in your personal check or money order.
- 4) By donating using your smartphone, via text. Follow the instructions: Text the word GIVE to (650) 590 5031 and follow the instructions to "Register for an Account."

Administration of Sacraments for Catechumens

As we gradually reopen our church and our liturgical celebrations we would like to thank our Catechumens and candidates for their patience and understanding as we plan the logistics on administration of their sacraments. We will be sending more information in a few weeks, we hope and pray that we can celebrate your coming into full communion with the Catholic Church in the month of September.

Please check our website and our Facebook page for up to date information.

Decimotavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

NADA PUEDE SEPARARNOS

El pasaje de hoy de la carta de san Pablo a los romanos, capítulo 8, termina con una frase muy adornada con diferente y bellas palabras que contrastan. El punto de exclamación es el punto de la enseñanza de Pablo acerca de la presencia del Espíritu dentro y en medio de ellos. La Iglesia en Roma en ese tiempo enfrentó un gran sufrimiento pues la comunidad fue marginada y perseguida a causa de su fe. Pablo menciona fuerzas tanto sociales como cósmicas que los oprimen, sobre las cuales no tienen control. Sus dificultades probablemente hicieron que tuvieran dudas que los hicieran preguntarse: “¿dónde está Dios?”

Pablo enseña que Dios está tan profundamente presente en nosotros que nada puede separarnos de Dios. Esto incluye nuestras propias formas de resistencia. Incluso cuando encontramos innumerables formas de evitar y huir, Dios está esperando pacientemente. Incluso cuando Dios parece estar distante o ausente, Dios continúa invitando, dando la bienvenida y hablándonos.

IMAGINANDO LA ABUNDANCIA DE DIOS

Al reflexionar hoy en el pasaje del Evangelio de Mateo, la historia de alimentar a la multitud, podríamos considerar el papel de los discípulos de Jesús. A diferencia de la historia muy similar en Mateo 15, Jesús responde a los discípulos diciéndoles “denles ustedes de comer”. Jesús fomenta a sus discípulos a pensar más allá de la aparente escasez, y a abrir su imaginación a la abundancia de Dios. Deben unirse a lo que Dios está haciendo. Entonces Jesús toma, bendice, parte y comparte el pan (anticipando lo que hará en la Última Cena), y los discípulos comparten los panes con la multitud.

Las historias en donde se alimenta a las multitudes también apuntan a la práctica de la Eucaristía en la Iglesia. La Eucaristía misma apunta hacia el banquete de Dios en la consumación del reino de Dios, cuando todos compartiremos la abundancia de Dios. Nosotros, la Iglesia, se nos llama a abrir nuestra imaginación a Dios presente y activo, que obra continuamente hacia el futuro prometido de Dios. Debemos compartir el deseo apasionado de Dios por alimentar a las personas y unirnos en lo que Dios está haciendo aquí y ahora.

Lecturas de hoy: Is 55:1-3; Sal 145 (144):8-9, 15-16, 17-18; Rom 8:35, 37-39; Mt 14:13-21

JUNTOS COMO HERMANOS Lunes - 7:00 PM

FAMILY PRAYER HOUR Tuesdays - 7:00 PM

We need only to look around to see the tremendous pressures facing our families and how those pressures pull our families apart. There’s little doubt that we live in a society of instant everything, one of the major contributions to family deterioration. Family Prayer Night is a response. It is a way for families to set aside an hour a week to be together in the presence of God, to pray and appreciate the most important people in our lives. Join us every Tuesday in church, 7-8 pm for Adoration, Benediction and Prayer.
