SAINT ATHANASIUS

Pentecost Sunday

Come, Holy Spirit! Today we celebrate Pentecost, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the first disciples and on all who are baptized. We also commemorate the birth of the Church. Before Pentecost, the disciples remained hidden and uncertain; at Pentecost, those who were gathered were filled with the Spirit and proclaimed the wonders of the Good News of Christ to all. The Spirit guides us to the truth of Christ's love and mercy and strengthens us to live as disciples. Without the Holy Spirit, we would perish; with the Spirit, we have life to the full. Relying on the Spirit, we are given the grace to turn away from the many temptations that we face each day and prefer instead what is good and holy. Come, Holy Spirit, come!

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

As followers of Jesus, we are called to direct our minds and hearts to Christ's love, turning away from all that is not of God in order to be more Christ-like in our daily lives. The more we invite the Holy Spirit to draw us close to God's heart, the more readily we will avoid sin and choose life, faith, and love. In the letter to the Galatians, we hear a list of things that those who live in the Spirit are to avoid. Things like immorality, hatred, jealousy, and selfishness. At first glance, we might think to ourselves, "of course I want to avoid those things," and yet, if we are honest with ourselves, we likely recognize some of those patterns in our lives. Upon further reflection, however, we also see that these negative behaviors pose temporary pleasure while the fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control—lead to a life of deep and lasting fulfillment.

NOTHING WILL STAND IN THE WAY

The Jewish people who had gathered in Jerusalem for the festival of Pentecost came from every corner of the world. They spoke many languages and yet were drawn to hear the message of Christ from the disciples who had just experienced the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. They were astonished by what they heard—not only the message, but the way in which it was conveyed, in their own language, and by the messengers, people whom they would have considered ordinary and unremarkable, rather than the acknowledged religious leaders of their time. We, too, are called to share the love and mercy of Christ through word and action, even when we feel small and insignificant. We need only to look at the witness and experience of those first disciples and all the saints who have preceded us to know that we are capable of much when we place our lives in God's hands. Nothing can stand in the way of the incredible love of God when we are filled with the power and presence of the Holy Spirit!

BOLETIN HISPANO

Domingo de Pentecostés

¡Ven Espíritu Santo! La celebración de hoy es Pentecostés, la efusión del Espíritu Santo sobre los primeros discípulos y todos los que están bautizados. Nosotros también conmemoramos el nacimiento de la Iglesia. Antes de Pentecostés, los discípulos estaban escondidos e inseguros; en Pentecostés, aquellos que estaban reunidos se llenaron del Espíritu y proclamaron a todos las maravillas de la Buena Nueva de Cristo. El Espíritu nos guía a la verdad del amor y misericordia de Cristo y nos fortalece para vivir como discípulos. Sin el Espíritu Santo, pereceríamos; con el Espíritu, tenemos vida plena. Apoyándonos en el Espíritu, se nos da la gracia de alejarnos de las muchas tentaciones que afrontamos cada día y en su lugar preferimos lo que es bueno y santo. ¡Ven Espíritu Santo, ven!

EL FRUTO DEL ESPÍRITU

Como seguidores de Jesús, estamos llamados a orientar nuestras mentes y corazones hacia el amor de Cristo, apartándonos de todo aquello que no es de Dios para parecernos más a Cristo en nuestra vida diaria. Cuanto más invitemos al Espíritu Santo a acercarnos al corazón de Dios, más fácilmente evitaremos el pecado y elegiremos la vida, la fe y el amor. En la carta a los Gálatas, escuchamos una lista de cosas que deben evitar los que viven en el Espíritu. Cosas como la inmoralidad, el odio, los celos y el egoísmo. A primera vista, podemos pensar: "desde luego que quiero evitar esas cosas" y, sin embargo, si somos honestos con nosotros mismos, probablemente reconozcamos algunos de estos patrones en nuestras vidas. Sin embargo, con un poco más de reflexión también veremos que estos comportamientos negativos suponen un placer temporal y que los frutos del Espíritu, el amor, la alegría, la paciencia, la bondad, la generosidad, la fidelidad, la mansedumbre y el autocontrol, guían a una vida de plenitud profunda y duradera.

NADA SE INTERPONDRÁ EN EL CAMINO

El pueblo judío que se había reunido en Jerusalén para la festividad de Pentecostés venía de todos los rincones del mundo conocido entonces. Ellos hablaban diferentes idiomas y, sin embargo, se sintieron atraídos a escuchar el mensaje de Cristo de boca de los discípulos que acaban de experimentar la efusión del Espíritu Santo. Ellos quedaron asombrados por lo que escucharon, no sólo por el mensaje, sino por la forma en la que se les transmitió, en su propio idioma, y por los mensajeros, personas a las que bien pudieron haber considerado como ordinarias y comunes, en lugar de los reconocidos líderes religiosos de su tiempo. También nosotros estamos llamados a compartir el amor y la misericordia de Cristo por medio de la palabra y la acción, incluso cuando nos podamos sentirnos pequeños e insignificantes. Solo necesitamos observar el testimonio y la experiencia de aquellos primeros discípulos y de todos los santos que nos han precedido para saber que somos capaces de mucho cuando ponemos nuestras vidas en las manos de Dios. Nada puede interponerse en el camino del increíble amor de Dios cuando estamos llenos del poder y la presencia del Espíritu Santo.
