Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings from Isaiah and from the Gospel of Mark confront us with the fact that the invitation to faith leads us into suffering. In Isaiah, the prophet accepts pain and shaming from others, as he trusts in God. In Mark, Jesus is blunt about this: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." When we embrace faith, we are confronted with our own fears about suffering and about losing comfort, status, and control over our lives. Life has plenty of suffering already, so why choose to add to it? Jesus points to a response: avoiding our fears and clinging to illusion and superficial comforts will not give us what we really want from life. Jesus offers a better, deeper life, a life grounded in God's love. It is lived in hope of resurrection and the final triumph of this love.

A DIFFERENT LIFE

The Gospel of Mark reaches a turning point in today's passage. About halfway through Mark, Jesus' disciples begin to understand Jesus as the Messiah (or Christ). And Jesus begins to spell out just what is expected of those who follow him. The story then shifts to learning just what being Christ, and following Christ, actually means. Jesus shatters the expectation of a political or military power defeating Israel's oppressors, and reveals a different kind of Messiah. The disciples later come to see that this different Messiah offers a different understanding of power, and of life itself.

We inhabit a world that honors power over others, through wealth or achievement or violence. Jesus invites us into a community and a way of life that honors the power of love and service to others. Lived fully, it is truly a different way of life. It is marked by great suffering and great joy, because it embraces the fundamental pattern of the death and resurrection of Jesus.

A "LARGE" FAITH

The letter of James is designed to enlarge your faith. James knew that his community faced trials that could lead them to abandon the faith, or perhaps to reduce faith to a comfortable, manageable size. In today's passage, James calls the reader to resist reducing faith to safe, intellectual assent to teachings, and instead to expand one's faith to actively engage in good works, especially in service to the poor.

To have a "large" faith is to move from apathy toward others' sufferings to empathy and to action. A large faith leads to a large heart, where we can take in the enormity of suffering in the world around us, not become overwhelmed by it, and do what we can to relieve it. With a large heart, we can even squarely face our own sufferings, accepting our own tragedies with forgiveness and hope, and walking in empathy with all who share in suffering.

BOLETIN HISPANO

Vigésimo Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Nuestras lecturas de Isaías y del Evangelio de Marcos nos confrontan con el hecho de que la invitación a la fe nos lleva al sufrimiento. En Isaías, el profeta acepta el dolor y la vergüenza de los demás, mientras confía en Dios. En Marcos, Jesús es contundente al respecto: “El que quiera seguirme, que se niegue a sí mismo, tome su cruz y me siga”. Cuando aceptamos la fe, nos enfrentamos a nuestros propios miedos al sufrimiento y a perder la comodidad, el estatus y el control de nuestras vidas. La vida ya tiene mucho sufrimiento, así que ¿por qué elegir añadirlo? Jesús señala una respuesta: evitar nuestros miedos y aferrarnos a la ilusión y a las comodidades superficiales no nos dará lo que realmente queremos de la vida. Jesús ofrece una vida mejor y más profunda, una vida fundada en el amor de Dios. Se vive con la esperanza de la resurrección y el triunfo final de este amor.

UNA VIDA DIFERENTE

El Evangelio de Marcos alcanza un punto de inflexión en el pasaje de hoy. Como hacía la mitad de Marcos, los discípulos empiezan a entender que Jesús es el Mesías (o Cristo). Y Jesús empieza a detallar lo que se espera de quienes lo siguen. El relato cambia entonces a aprender lo que significa realmente ser Cristo y seguir a Cristo. Jesús rompe la expectativa de un poder político o militar que derrote a los opresores de Israel, y revela un tipo diferente de Mesías. Después, los discípulos se dan cuenta de que este Mesías diferente ofrece una comprensión diferente del poder y de la vida misma.

Vivimos en un mundo que honra el poder sobre los demás, a través de la riqueza, los logros o la violencia. Jesús nos invita a una comunidad y a una forma de vida que honra el poder del amor y del servicio a los demás. Vivida plenamente, es una forma de vida verdaderamente diferente. Está marcada por un gran sufrimiento y una gran alegría, porque abraza el modelo fundamental de la muerte y la resurrección de Jesús.

UNA FE “GRANDE”

La carta de Santiago está pensada para engrandecer la fe. Santiago sabía que su comunidad enfrentaba pruebas que podían llevarlos a abandonar la fe, o quizá a reducirla a un tamaño cómodo y manejable. En el pasaje de hoy, Santiago invita a quien lea su carta a resistirse a reducir la fe a un sentimiento seguro y racional de las enseñanzas y, en cambio, a expandir su fe para comprometerse activamente en buenas obras, especialmente en el servicio a los pobres.

Tener una fe “grande” es pasar de la apatía hacia los sufrimientos de los demás a la empatía y la acción. Una fe grande nos lleva a un corazón grande, donde podemos tomar lo enorme del sufrimiento en el mundo que nos rodea, sin abrumarnos por ello, y hacer lo que podamos para aliviarlo. Con un corazón grande, podemos incluso enfrentar nuestros propios sufrimientos, aceptando nuestras propias tragedias con perdón y esperanza, y caminando con empatía con todos los que comparten el sufrimiento.
