Break Open the Tomb

Lord of Easter's Promise, I live in faith of the Resurrection, but such is the nature of my faith that so much of me remains entombed. Break open the tomb.

Where I've buried my compassion, break open the tomb. Where I've buried my sense of mercy, break open the tomb. Where I've buried my humility, break open the tomb. Where I've buried my humanity, break open the tomb. Where I've buried my love for my Heavenly Father, break open the tomb. Where I've buried my sense of joy, break open the tomb. Where I've buried my willingness to forgive, break open the tomb.

Lord, in you I've found a Savior no grave can withstand. Help me to roll away this stone and find the miracle of new life. That I may live more fully in your saving grace. Amen

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

One of the best ways to remember something truly important is to set it to music. It can be easily recalled and sung by heart and passed on. As you focus on the scriptures for Palm Sunday, it might be helpful to think of them as past, present, and future versions of the same story. In Isaiah, we hear one of four hymns referring to the "Suffering Servant" that paints a poignant picture prefiguring Jesus' crucifixion. "I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting." Psalm 22's refrain is some of the last words spoken by Jesus on the cross. The Philippians hymn is one of the most beloved and poignant passages ever, "Christ . . . becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross." All of these are songs, hymns to be remembered.

DO YOU KNOW THE STORY?

We might assume that we know the scriptures and tend to tune out something as difficult to comprehend as the Passion of Christ. What we often end up doing is taking all four of the Gospels and sort of mixing the accounts into one story. The theologian Gerhard Lohfink called this "making Gospel Soup." Today's Passion is from the Gospel of Luke, and there are some elements that are very different from Matthew and Mark (the other synoptic Gospels read in Lectionary years A and B), and John's Gospel text which is always proclaimed on Good Friday. Let's look at the elements that are specific to Luke as we break the Passion into five sections.

THE LUKAN PASSION

Lord's Supper (22:14-38) Luke portrays Jesus as fiery and working for justice, both in his passion and in his ministry. The Passover feast is a very special time for the disciples, and while they are being commissioned, it is clear that they do not understand yet how they will carry on; Jesus warns them to protect them from evil.

Mount of Olives (22:39-53) Luke's Jesus doesn't seem as desolate as in other accounts about his imminent death, and goes to pray in regular fashion. He calls out his betrayer by name, hinting at foreshadowing of knowledge.

Peter's Denial – Sanhedrin (22:54-71) One can see the special care Jesus takes for Peter, and the scene takes place in the courtyard where Jesus was earlier abused as prophet.

Trials before Pilate and Herod (23:1-25) In this account Pilate and Herod both proclaim Jesus to be innocent, and this heals a "rift" between them. Jesus is good even to those who maltreat him.

Crucifixion, Death, and Burial (23:26-56) There are no soldiers; it is the chief priests who take Jesus to Pilate. Jesus' words on the Cross are kind: "Father forgive them." In Mark's Gospel both criminals mocked Jesus, but here one of them begs forgiveness, and Jesus grants him salvation. Jesus' last words show a sign of trust: "Father, into your hands . . ." May we also place our trust in God as we enter into Holy Week.

Today's Readings: Lk 19:28-40; Is 50:4-7; Ps 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24; Phil 2:6-11; Lk 22:14 - 23:56 o 23:1-49

Domingo de Ramos "de la Pasión del Señor"

Una de las mejores maneras de recordar algo verdaderamente importante es ponerle música. Es fácil recordarlo, cantarlo de memoria y transmitirlo. Al centrarse en las Escrituras del Domingo de Ramos, puede ser útil pensar en ellas como versiones pasadas, presentes y futuras de la misma historia. En Isaías, escuchamos uno de los cuatro himnos que se refieren al "Siervo sufriente", que pinta un cuadro conmovedor que prefigura la crucifixión de Jesús. "Entregué mi espalda a los que me golpeaban, mis mejillas a los que me arrancaban la barba; mi rostro no lo protegí de las bufonadas y los escupitajos". El estribillo del Salmo 22 es una de las últimas palabras pronunciadas por Jesús en la cruz. El himno de Filipenses es uno de los pasajes más queridos y conmovedores: "Cristo. . . haciéndose obediente hasta la muerte, y muerte de cruz". Todos estos son cantos, himnos para ser recordados.

¿CONOCES LA HISTORIA?

Podríamos suponer que conocemos las Escrituras y tendemos a dejar de lado algo tan difícil de comprender como la Pasión de Cristo. Lo que solemos hacer es tomar los cuatro evangelios y mezclar los relatos en una sola historia. El teólogo Gerhard Lohfink llamó a esto "hacer sopa de Evangelio". La Pasión de hoy es del Evangelio de Lucas, y hay algunos elementos que son muy diferentes de los de Mateo y Marcos (los otros Evangelios sinópticos que se leen en los años A y B del Leccionario), y del texto del Evangelio de Juan que siempre se proclama el Viernes Santo. Veamos los elementos que son específicos de Lucas al dividir la Pasión en cinco secciones.

LA PASIÓN SEGÚN LUCAS

La Cena del Señor (22:14-38) Lucas retrata a Jesús como ardiente y trabajador por la justicia, tanto en su pasión como en su ministerio. La fiesta de la Pascua es un momento muy especial para los discípulos, y aunque se les encomienda, está claro que aún no entienden cómo van a seguir adelante; Jesús les advierte que les proteja del mal.

Monte de los Olivos (22:39-53) El Jesús de Lucas no parece tan desolado como en otros relatos sobre su inminente muerte, y va a rezar de forma habitual. Llama a su traidor por su nombre, insinuando la prefiguración del conocimiento.

Negación de Pedro - Sanedrín (22:54-71) Se puede ver el especial cuidado que Jesús tiene por Pedro, y la escena tiene lugar en el patio donde antes se abusó de Jesús como profeta.

Juicio ante Pilato y Herodes (23:1-25) En este relato, tanto Pilato como Herodes proclaman a Jesús como inocente, y esto sana una "grieta" entre ellos. Jesús es bueno incluso con los que le maltratan.

Crucifixión, muerte y sepultura (23:26-56) No hay soldados; son los sumos sacerdotes quienes llevan a Jesús ante Pilato. Las palabras de Jesús en la cruz son amables: "Padre, perdónalos". En el Evangelio de Marcos los dos criminales se burlaron de Jesús, pero aquí uno de ellos pide perdón y Jesús le concede la salvación. Las últimas palabras de Jesús muestran un signo de confianza: "Padre, en tus manos. . ." Que nosotros también pongamos nuestra confianza en Dios al entrar en la Semana Santa.

Lecturas de hoy: Lc 19:28-40; Is 50:4-7; Sal 22 (21):8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24; Fil 2:6-11; Lc 22:14 - 23:56 o 23:1-49
