Fifth Sunday of Easter

In the first sentence of today's Gospel passage from John, Jesus' address at the Last Supper, the words "glorify" or "glorified" appear five times. For John, glory has to do with honor and reputation, the primary characteristic of a person. John thus invites us to reflect upon what God's glory fully means. God is glorified when God's truest nature is revealed, as the God who loves. Today's passage is situated between two demonstrations of Jesus' love: the washing of feet and going to the cross. The capacity to glorify God extends to all of us. Like Jesus, love is revealed both in our mundane acts of service and in our acts and commitments of great sacrifice. Jesus' "new commandment," flowing from God's love within us, invites us to extend and deepen our love for others, to include everyone. We may then reveal God's truest nature to everyone, and so glorify God.

MADE FOR EACH OTHER

We are introduced to the book of Revelation's great concluding vision in our second reading. The completion of God's project of salvation is described as a new Jerusalem coming from heaven, to form a new heaven and new earth. The image of a marriage articulates this vision, in which the two sides of God's good creation, earth and heaven, are joined in a final union. Earth (the physical universe) will not be destroyed, but instead be fully renewed.

This vision rejects any notion that the physical and the spiritual are ultimately separate and opposed to each other. It rejects the idea that heaven is an escape from a prison of earthly life. Like a marriage partnership, these two sides of reality are fundamentally made for each other. Life in heaven and life on earth are quite different now. But the life of faith, here and now, offers a foretaste of God's promised future.

ALL THINGS NEW

The new heaven and new earth described by Revelation is where God will dwell fully among God's beloved creation. God's reign will be a reign of love, where death will be no more. In Revelation, death fuels fear and resentment, which turn to cycles of violence and destruction, and to social systems that sustain injustice. These cycles of death will one day be broken by love. In God's reign of love, new energies of creativity and human fulfillment can be released.

When God says "behold, I make all things new," God is speaking of both the present and the future. God is working now, in every person and community, in every part of creation, to bring about this new reality. We the Church must learn to see God working in our lives, our workplaces, and our neighborhoods, breaking cycles of death. We are summoned to join in what God is doing, releasing new energies of love, anticipating the final fulfillment of God's work.

Today's Readings: Acts 14:21-27; Ps 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13; Rev 21:1-5a; Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35

Parents and Students who are preparing to receive First Communion this year are reminded that mandatory classes are scheduled for Sunday, May 15th, and on Sunday May 22nd at 2:30 PM here in the church.

We ask that the members of our parish pray for these students as they prepare to receive the Body of Christ.

A Reason for Easter Joy!
 We journeyed through the days of Lent so that we might celebrate the joy of resurrection! Our warmest congratulations to all of them! We also wish to thank all their sponsors and Godparents who supported them on this part of their faith journey as well as their catechists. Finally, we thank all of you for your prayers for them during their journey through Lent. Please continue to pray for our Neophytes as they delve more fully into the mysteries of their Catholic faith during this Easter Season.

We are happy to announce that four members of St. Athanasius Parish just graduated from our Diocese's "Institute for Leadership in Ministry". Congratulations to Jeffrey Alapar, Betty Ortiz, Peter Taskovich, and Flor Zúñiga for completing this three-year-long program.

Quinto Domingo de Pascua

En la primera frase del pasaje del Evangelio de hoy de Juan, el discurso de Jesús en la Última Cena, las palabras “glorificar” o “glorificado” aparecen cinco veces. Para Juan, la gloria tiene que ver con el honor y la reputación, la característica principal de una persona. Así, Juan nos invita a reflexionar sobre lo que significa plenamente la gloria de Dios. Dios es glorificado cuando se revela su naturaleza más verdadera, como el Dios que ama. El pasaje de hoy se sitúa entre dos demostraciones del amor de Jesús: el lavatorio de los pies y el paso por la cruz. La capacidad de glorificar a Dios se extiende a todos nosotros. Como Jesús, el amor se revela tanto en nuestros actos mundanos de servicio como en nuestros actos y compromisos de gran sacrificio. El “mandamiento nuevo” de Jesús, que brota del amor de Dios en nosotros, nos invita a extender y profundizar nuestro amor por los demás, para incluir a todos. Así podremos revelar a todos la verdadera naturaleza de Dios y glorificar a Dios.

HECHO EL UNO PARA EL OTRO

En la segunda lectura se nos presenta la gran visión final del libro del Apocalipsis. La culminación del proyecto de salvación de Dios se describe como una nueva Jerusalén que viene del cielo, para formar un cielo nuevo y una tierra nueva. La imagen de un matrimonio articula esta visión, en la que las dos partes de la buena creación de Dios, la tierra y el cielo, se unen en una unión final. La tierra (el universo físico) no se destruirá, sino que se renovará por completo.

Esta visión rechaza cualquier noción de que lo físico y lo espiritual están en última instancia separados y opuestos entre sí. Rechaza la idea de que el cielo sea una escapatoria de la prisión de la vida terrenal. Al igual que un matrimonio, estas dos partes de la realidad están hechas fundamentalmente la una para la otra. La vida en el cielo y la vida en la tierra son muy diferentes ahora. Pero la vida de fe, aquí y ahora, ofrece un anticipo del futuro prometido por Dios.

TODAS LAS COSAS NUEVAS

El cielo nuevo cielo y la tierra nueva descritos por el Apocalipsis es donde Dios habitará plenamente entre su amada creación. El reino de Dios será un reino de amor, donde la muerte ya no existirá. En el Apocalipsis, la muerte alimenta el miedo y el resentimiento, que se convierten en ciclos de violencia y destrucción, y en sistemas sociales que mantienen la injusticia. Estos ciclos de muerte se romperán un día por el amor. En el reino de amor de Dios, se podrán liberar nuevas energías de creatividad y realización humana.

Cuando Dios dice “he aquí que hago nuevas todas las cosas”, está hablando tanto del presente como del futuro. Dios está trabajando ahora, en cada persona y comunidad, en cada parte de la creación, para llevar a cabo esta nueva realidad. Nosotros, la Iglesia, debemos aprender a ver a Dios trabajando en nuestras vidas, en nuestros lugares de trabajo y en nuestros barrios, rompiendo los ciclos de muerte. Estamos llamados a unirnos a lo que Dios está haciendo, liberando nuevas energías de amor, anticipando el cumplimiento final de la obra de Dios.

Special thanks go to the members of Jovenes Para Cristo for the beautiful Altar of Repose and flowers that they prepared for Holy Thursday and to Lilia Flores for her lovely church arrangement for Holy Thursday.

A big thank you to those who donated flowers for Easter and to the following volunteers who spent many hours cleaning and decorating the church for Easter: José Enrique Guerrero, Rosa Perez, Lilia Flores, Christina Ramirez, René Hernandez, Aïda Lecointre, Pat Papa, and Peter Taskovich, as well as to Jesús Gonzalez and Angie Torres who cleaned the church and hall after the Easter Vigil. Thanks as well to Michelle Agreda (our Pastoral Associate) for the Reception she prepared in the hall after the Easter Vigil and to Manuel Barriga who helped with the Easter Vigil fire outside the church.

Many thanks to our liturgical ministers who assisted with all the Holy Week services. Special thanks to our altar server trainers (Jeffrey Alapar, Deacon Jovie Reyes, René Hernandez, and Rafael Agreda) and all the altar servers who spent countless hours practicing and preparing for the many services.
