SAINT ATHANASIUS

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We return to Ordinary Time this Sunday, and with this new season we focus on what it means to be a person who is called by God for some definite purpose. Elisha recognized God's call in Elijah's greeting and prepared immediately to follow. The people who came to Jesus seemed ready to follow, yet each had reasons to linger behind. As people who are given the freedom to follow or to stay behind, we must ask ourselves what we are ready to do for the sake of Christ and the call of the gospel. What are you called to do at this time in your life? Are you prepared to leave behind the things that get in the way of living as a Christian?

FOLLOW

What does it mean to follow Jesus? The Gospels show us that Jesus called each person individually, recognizing the things that stood in the way for each. He looked into the person's heart and saw the true desires of the person standing before him. Each of us experiences Christ's call uniquely as the persons we are. For some, following requires us to take stock of our lives and let go of the obstacles that keep us from the way of true discipleship. For others, the call may lead us to deepen the way that faith directs our lives, with more intentional time in prayer, regular participation in Mass, renewed attention to family, involvement in our parish, or new acts of service.

BE READY

It is easy to say we want to follow Jesus, yet most of us feel competing desires that stand in the way of discipleship. We may be distracted by the constant swirl of activity so prevalent in our surrounding culture; we might be lured by worldly wealth and the status that often accompanies it; we may simply be comfortable with the way things are and find it difficult to risk changing anything. In today's Gospel, Jesus makes it clear that we must stop putting off making the changes that will bring us closer to him and to God's way of life. We must trust in the Lord, knowing that what he most deeply desires is that we be close to him. If you encountered Jesus today and said you were ready to follow him, what would he see in your heart, what obstacles or hesitations would he perceive? Go to Jesus in prayer this day. Listen to him say, "Follow me." Prayerfully place your life in the Lord's hands and be ready to follow.

Decimotercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Este domingo volvemos al Tiempo Ordinario, y con este nuevo tiempo nos centramos en lo que significa ser una persona llamada por Dios para algún propósito definido. Eliseo reconoció la llamada de Dios en el saludo de Elías y se preparó inmediatamente para seguirle. Las personas que se acercaron a Jesús parecían dispuestas a seguir, pero cada una tenía razones para quedarse atrás. Como personas a las que se les da la libertad de seguir o quedarse atrás, debemos preguntarnos qué estamos dispuestos a hacer por el bien de Cristo y la llamada del Evangelio. ¿Qué estás llamado a hacer en este momento de tu vida? ¿Estás preparado para dejar atrás las cosas que te impiden vivir como cristiano?

SEGUIR

¿Qué significa seguir a Jesús? Los evangelios nos muestran que Jesús llamó a cada persona individualmente, reconociendo las cosas que se interponían en el camino de cada uno. Miró en el corazón de la persona y vio los verdaderos deseos de la persona que estaba ante él. Cada uno de nosotros experimenta la llamada de Cristo de forma única, como personas que somos. Para algunos, el seguimiento requiere que hagamos un balance de nuestras vidas y dejemos de lado los obstáculos que nos alejan del camino del verdadero discipulado. Para otros, la llamada puede llevarnos a profundizar en el modo en que la fe dirige nuestras vidas, con más tiempo intencionado de oración, participación regular en la Misa, atención renovada a la familia, participación en nuestra parroquia o nuevos actos de servicio.

ESTAR LISTO

Es fácil decir que queremos seguir a Jesús, pero la mayoría de nosotros sentimos deseos contrapuestos que se interponen en el camino del discipulado. Puede que nos distraiga el constante torbellino de actividad que prevalece en la cultura que nos rodea; puede que nos atraiga la riqueza mundana y el estatus que a menudo la acompaña; puede que simplemente nos sintamos cómodos con la forma en que están las cosas y nos resulte difícil arriesgarnos a cambiar algo. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús deja claro que debemos dejar de posponer los cambios que nos acercarán a él y al estilo de vida de Dios. Debemos confiar en el Señor, sabiendo que lo que más desea es que estemos cerca de él. Si hoy te encuentras con Jesús y le dices que estás dispuesto a seguirle, ¿qué vería él en tu corazón, qué obstáculos o vacilaciones percibiría? Acércate a Jesús en la oración de este día. Escúchale decir: "Sígueme". Pon en oración tu vida en manos del Señor y prepárate para seguirle.
